Another Term of Court in Breathitt—
Captain Ewen Leaves Lexington
Hurriedly.

JETT'S TRIAL IN JULY

SPECIAL TERM OF COURT.

Frankfort, Ky., June 23—At the request of Governor Beckham, based on information he now has in hand, Circuit Judge Redwine will convene the Breathitt circuit court in special session at Jackson, July 20, and at once impanel a special grand jury, which will be carefully selected by officials other than those of Breathitt county.

Meantime soldiers will remain on duty at Jackson. There will be ample protection for the witnesses before the grand jury, and after it adjourns the witnesses will be escorted for, as it is probable that arrests of leaders and lieutenants will follow the indictments immediately. With the leaders in jail in some remote county, it is not believed there will be any more arson or assassination.

CAPT. EWEN FLEES.

Lexington, Ky., June 23—Captain H. J. Ewen, the leading witness in the trial of Jett and White for the murder of J. B. Marcum at Jackson, left here yesterday afternoon for a secret destination. The action was taken on the advice of friends after Captain Ewen had been informed by a man, who came from Jackson today, of the existence of a plot to assassinate him. All sorts of rumors are in circulation concerning efforts to interfere with the course of justice in the Marcum case. Captain Ewen not only felt that he was in danger constantly, but that his presence here might endanger his friends.

WAS QUICK WORK.

Louisville, June 23—Henry Knight, formerly a hotel proprietor at Fulton, Ky., was today adjudged a bankrupt by Judge Evans in the United States court.

TO TRY JETT AND WHITE.

Frankfort, June 23—It is stated that a special term of the Harrison circuit court will be called on July 27 to try Jett and White.

LONG LIVE DIAZ.

GRAND OLD MEXICAN AGAIN ACCEPTS NOMINATION.

Mexico City, June 23—The National Liberal convention this afternoon placed in the hands of General Diaz the nomination for the presidency during the coming term. The spokesman, Gabriel Mancera, made the presentation, and dwelt on the hopes placed by the country in General Diaz.

The president, in reply, said that it is the duty of every citizen to serve his country for as long and in as many posts as his fellow citizens may call on him to do.

A NATIVE OF KENTUCKY.

Clarksville, Tenn., June 23—Mrs. Elizabeth Winn, daughter of Rev. Mr. McGowan of Union City, Tenn., died at her home in this city from stomach trouble, aged 50 years leaving a son and two daughters. She was a native of Trigg county, Ky.

GOT SOME GUESSING

Family Conference of I. C.
Transportation Officials

Mr. Rawn to Meet Them in Chicago
Today for a Business Conference.

MAY DECIDE ON CHANGES

I. C. Rawn general superintendent of transportation of the Illinois Central system, has called a conference of all chief officials of the transportation department to meet with him in Chicago today for a conference. Those who will attend from the South are:

C. M. Dunn, assistant general superintendent of the Illinois Central at New Orleans; A. Philbrick, superintendent of the Louisville division of the Illinois Central at Louisville; J. G. Lorton, superintendent of the Tennessee division of the same road at Fulton, Ky.; J. G. Neudorfer, superintendent of the Mississippi division at Water Valley, and O. T. Seale, superintendent of the Louisiana division at New Orleans.

Considerable speculation took place in Illinois Central circles immediately upon the receipt of Mr. Rawn's call. All kinds of rumors were at once set in circulation as to the real cause of the meeting, but nothing tangible could be developed beyond the fact that Mr. Rawn was anxious to meet his subordinates and lay plans for the future workings of the transportation department.

Each of the officials summoned went up to Chicago with the fact well known that Mr. Rawn's ideas of transportation differed radically with many of those of his predecessors. They also knew that he had been appointed for the express purpose of making future congestions, such as were of constant appearance last fall and winter, an impossibility. Naturally many of them were anxious to know whether their ideas of handling trains were in accord with that of Mr. Rawn, and will probably be on needles until after the lessons of the conference shall have fully developed.

It has been freely asserted that Mr. Rawn proposed to use the six vigorous in settling upon men whom he deemed competent to work under him, but so far no evidences of this claim have appeared. It may be that he has called the meeting above referred to for the purpose of making up his mind along this line, and it is just that fear that will worry a number of men until after everything shall have been settled. But in the meantime, Mr. Rawn has adhered to his usual practice of keeping quiet, and nothing has appeared on the surface to warrant the assumption that the meeting will be anything else than a "family conference."

ACCIDENT LIST.

NONE OF SERIOUS CONSEQUENCE TODAY, HOWEVER.

Dr. D. L. Stuart set a fractured rib for Paul Wagner, an apprentice of the I. C. shops, who resides on South Sixth street. The rib was broken two weeks ago by a fall from a bicycle, but the fracture was only discovered today.

Mr. Olay Mings, an employe of the I. C., was struck in the eye by a piece of flying steel yesterday afternoon and painfully hurt, the sight in one of his eyes being possibly impaired, if not destroyed.

Mr. Elmore Townsend of the American express company, while knocking rocks with a baseball bat yesterday afternoon late, was struck in the mouth and his upper lip badly cut.

Edward, the 8 year old son of Banker Ed L. Atkins, while playing about a new house on West Broadway his father is building, fell and cut his lower lip badly yesterday afternoon. Dr. H. P. Sights dressed the injury.

Mr. Wallie McGee, of Louisville, formerly of the city, was here today en route home from Texas. He is now riding on the L. and N. road.

NEGRO BURNED AT THE STAKE LAST NIGHT

Wilmington, Del., June 23—A mob of 2,000 last night broke into the county workhouse, bent on lynching George White, the negro who is held on charge of assaulting and killing Helen Bishop on Monday last. The guards defended the place and a boy and a man, members of the mob, have been shot and slightly injured. The guards played a strong stream of water into the crowd, which stubbornly held its ground, declaring that it would get the negro.

The negro was finally taken from the workhouse by the mob, which started him for Price's Corner, the scene of the assault and murder. The mob cut all wires leading to Wilmington, which is five miles from the workhouse, and excitedly announced when they had possession of the negro that they would burn him to death at Price's Corner.

The negro was taken to the scene of the crime. He there confessed to having assaulted the girl. He was then burned at the stake and his body riddled with bullets.

There was a fusillade for a time between the mob and the guards. Four members of the mob are said to have been shot, and Peter Smith, aged 17, was shot in the back.

BLOODTHIRSTY M'COYS GO ON THE WARPATH

Roanoke, Va., June 23—A party of mountaineers, led by Floyd McCoy, a member of the McCoy-Hatfield feudists, went to the mining town of Keystone, McDowell county, West Virginia, last night, took the law into their own hands and insulted many people. The abuse was resented by John Reynolds, an employe of a brewery. McCoy's crowd crossed the railroad and opened fire on Reynolds. A large crowd gathered, and the entire police force went in pursuit. McCoy retreated 400 yards, took his stand and opened fire on the officers and a pitched battle raged in the darkness. One of McCoy's men was killed and another fatally wounded, others being also injured. The police escaped injury.

The McCoy crowd escaped to the mountains, taking their dead and wounded with them. The names are unknown. Great excitement prevails.

The McCoys have not been on the warpath for several years. The Hatfields live in an adjoining county.

MORE ARRESTS.

OWENSBORO ARSON CASES CONTINUE TO CREATE EXCITEMENT.

Owensboro, Ky., June 23—J. Hugh Ditto, president of the Owensboro Pants Manufacturing company, was placed under bond of $1,000 for alleged complicity in the burning of the plant on the night of April 15.

S. Vance King, the secretary and treasurer of the company, was re-arrested at the same time and placed under the same bond.

The arrests followed that of Herman Sells, which took place Saturday night. Sells was at work on a boiler at the factory when the fire occurred and it is on his affidavit that Ditto and King were arrested.

The arrest of Ditto created a sensation. He is very prominent in business circles and is a nephew of Hugh Phillips, of this city. It is said that there is a warrant out for another official of the company, but that he is out of the city on business and will not be arrested for a day or two.

BASEBALL CASES

ALL WERE CONTINUED UNTIL TOMORROW THIS MORNING.

Warrants were issued yesterday afternoon against the baseball players who engaged in Sunday's game, and when the case was called today in Justice Young's court it was continued as some of the attorneys had to go to the county court.

SECRET WEDDING

The secret marriage of Mr. H. Miller Cunningham and Miss Linda Diuguid last February 18 in St. Louis is announced by the young people, who are very popular among a large acquaintance. The young lady is a daughter of Attorney G. O. Diuguid, formerly of Murray, and has resided in Paducah a number of years. Mr. Cunningham is a well known contractor, coal and cement dealer with many friends.

Mr. Edward Bowman and Miss Mary Maybards were married last night by Rev. Cap Owen at the latter's residence on Harrison street.

THE STRIKE ENDED

Ship Builders to Work on the Ways Again.

It Is Believed the Dock Owners Will Also Compromise in a Short
Time.

NUMBER OF STRIKERS ABSENT

The ship carpenter-caulker strike, as far as the marine ways company is concerned, has been settled by a compromise of $3 for nine hours' work. This cuts off one hour and is satisfactory to both sides.

Yesterday Captain Mike Williams called President Hayman to his office and informed him of the instructions from Captain Ed Howard relative to the concessions he was willing to make. A conference was held with the strikers and a decision as above arrived at. The papers and agreement were signed up yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, but only a few men are at work this morning, a majority of the local force being out of the city. The ways are being repaired and will be in running order by tomorrow. This action ends a seven weeks' strike and is good news to all.

The situation at the docks is unchanged, but it is thought the docks company will compromise the same as the ways company. Mr. H. A. Petter is in Golconda today and will not return until tomorrow, and the decision remains with him. It is stated that he will adopt the same scale and by Monday all the marine repairing docks, ways and floating barges will again be running.

DIED FROM FRACTURE

One of Paducah's Oldest Residents Dies on South Side.

Miss Mary Barnes Dies from Consumption After Long Illness.

Mrs. Phoebe Block, aged 82, one of Paducah's oldest and most highly respected ladies, died last night at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Schroeder, 817 South Fourth street, from a fractured femur and general debility. About six weeks ago Mrs. Block received a fall, and had gradually been growing weaker ever since.

She had lived in Paducah for many years and leaves three children, Mr. Leonard Block, Mrs. Phoebe Galloway and Mrs. Oattie Schroeder. She was a member of the German Evangelical church and the funeral will take place tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock, burial at Oak Grove.

Miss Mary Barnes, aged 18, died last night at the family residence of her father, Mr. D. W. Barnes, a well known ship carpenter, at 426 South Ninth street. She was a most estimable young lady and had been ill for quite awhile. The funeral takes place at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, burial at Oak Grove.

HOFFHEIMER INNOCENT

OWNER OF THE WHITE MILLS DISTILLERY ACQUITTED.

Louisville, Ky., June 23—Samuel A. Hoffheimer, principal owner of the White Mills distillery, which was seized by the Federal authorities on June 1 on a charge that it was being run with an intent to defraud the government of the tax on its product, was dismissed at his examining trial before a United States commissioner, no evidence having been discovered which would connect Mr. Hoffheimer with any knowledge of the alleged unlawful practices at White Mills.

John Deboe, warehouse foreman at the distillery, and John Heman, assistant warehouse foreman, were, however, bound over in the sum of $1,500 each to answer to the Federal grand jury next October.

FILES HIS CONTEST

Attorney L. K. Taylor Makes Nine Allegations in Petition

He Charges Fraud and Irregularities in the Recent Democratic Primary.

SAYS BOGUS BALLOTS PRINTED

Attorney L. K. Taylor, who was a candidate for the Democratic nomination for commonwealth's attorney in the district composed of McCracken and Marshall counties in the recent primary, today filed notice of his contest against Attorney John G. Lovett, to whom the certificate was awarded on a mandamus in circuit court here.

There were three candidates in the primary. Attorneys Taylor, Lovett and J. M. Worten, and Attorney Taylor was defeated by a small majority, and has since claimed by fraud. He wanted the ballot boxes opened by the committee, before the certificate was awarded, but the Marshall county chairman held that this could not be done and Chairman Morrison of the McCracken county committee declined to sign Mr. Lovett's certificate until it was done. Mr. Lovett took out a mandamus and Judge Husbands, in circuit court, held that the boxes could not be opened and the vote counted except on contest of Attorney Taylor, which contest is now filed. Chairman Morrison then signed the certificate.

Attorney Taylor has taken his time in preparing the contest papers, and there are nine distinct allegations contained in the eighteen typewritten pages that compose it.

Allegations Nos. 1, 2 and 3 are that the election in Marshall county was illegal, as the committee of that county had never been sworn in as required by law.

The fourth allegation is that the night of election the keys of the ballot boxes were turned over to Chairman Edwards of the Marshall county committee and that it can be proven that an effort was made to have bogus ballots printed in Paducah, and that they were printed in Paducah, and that the ballot boxes were stuffed while the keys were in possession of the chairman.

Allegation No. 5 is that the ballots in Marshall county were not properly printed, as they did not contain on the back the name of Mr. Morrison, of this county, an officer of the district committee.

The sixth allegation is that 338 votes cast for Attorney Taylor were counted for Attorney Lovett, and the other three allegations are of general irregularities in the primary.

This contest is to be heard by the judicial committee, composed of Chairman Morrison of McCracken and Chairman Edwards of Marshall. Attorney Taylor says that he has not played his last card yet, and that while he can take the matter into the courts, he has not done so yet. It is said that Mr. Lovett will have a difficult time getting his name on the official ballots in November, should he win the contest.

Mr. Taylor in his contest asks that the ballot boxes be opened and the vote counted and if there be fraud that it be exposed.

Attorney Taylor will this afternoon take the papers to Henton to have the sheriff serve them on Chairman Edwards.

SERIOUS DISASTER.

TWO PERSONS KILLED WHILE RETURNING FROM A FUNERAL.

San Francisco, June 23—A serious disaster occurred on the North Shore railroad in which two persons were killed and a score more or less severely injured.

The dead are: Anton Roman, founder of the Overland Monthly; M. M. Kirk, of San Francisco.

All of the victims were returning from the funeral of Warren Dutton, president of the State Dairymen's association, and president of the bank of Marine county at Tamala.

Every woman loves to think of the time when a soft little body, all her own, will nestle in her bosom, fully satisfying the yearning which lies in the heart of every good woman. But yet there is a black cloud hovering about the pretty picture in her mind which fills her with terror. The dread of childbirth takes away much of the joy of motherhood. And yet it need not be so. For sometimes there has been upon the market, well-known and recommended by physicians, a liniment called which makes childbirth as simple and easy as nature intended it. It is a strengthening, penetrating liniment, which the skin readily absorbs. It gives the muscles elasticity and vigor, prevents sore breasts, morning sickness and the loss of the gushy figure.

Mother's Friend

An intelligent mother in Butler, Pa., says: "When I used Mother's Friend again, I would obtain 9 bottles if I had to pay $3 per bottle for it."

These symptoms indicate that a tonic is needed that will create a healthy appetite, make digestion perfect, regulate the bowels and impart natural activity to the liver. This, Herbine will do. It is a tonic, laxative and restorative. H. J. Freegard, Proprietor, Grand View Hotel, Cheney, Kan., writes: "I have used Herbine for the last 12 years, and nothing on earth can beat it. It was recommended to me by Dr. Newton, Newton, Kan." 50c at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

FORTUNE IN WALL PAPER.

Residence in Albany, N. Y., Has Most Costly Adornment.

A portion of one of the walls of an old-fashioned, unpretentious residence in Albany, N. Y., is adorned with wall paper valued at upward of $200,000. To be more specific, the wall paper mentioned is valued at the rate of $50 per square inch. This high-priced wall paper consists of very rare revenue stamps, priced in current stamp catalogues at $150 each, and readily sell at $100 per copy. Fairly tales of apartments having walls plastered with stamps of priceless value have gone the rounds of "stamp" journals, but this is a true story. A local stamp dealer has investigated the matter personally and vouches for the accuracy of the statements.

Moore, agent Illinois Central railway, Milan, Tenn., states: "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment for rheumatism, backache, etc., in my family. It is a splendid remedy. We could not do without it." 25c, 50c and $1 at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

THE GREATEST EVER

B. P. O. E. National Convention to be Well Attended

Kentucky Will Be Represented in An Appropriate and Historic Manner.

A ROYAL WELCOME WAITING

Kentucky Elks are looking forward with keen anticipation to the annual reunion of the B. P. O. E. of America, to be held in Baltimore July 21 to 23. Splendid as has been the representation from old Kentucky at the other reunions, there is every reason to believe that the crowd at Baltimore will exceed all others both in point of numbers and in the lavishness with which it will sustain the state's famed reputation for hospitality and good fellowship.

Through the efforts of the reunion committee of the Louisville lodge of Elks, of which Mr. Max Bloom is chairman, the magnificent Union League club house, with all its equipment, has been secured as headquarters during the reunion. At the Lexington reunion these headquarters were courteously turned over to the state organization for state headquarters in an effective speech by Mr. Bloom. Thus for the first time Kentucky will have state headquarters at a national reunion and will dispense a princely hospitality.

Few buildings in Baltimore are so well adapted for entertainment as the Union League club. The Kentucky Elks will establish headquarters proper in the handsome assembly room, a splendid apartment leading into the smoking, reading and billiard rooms.

In the center of this room will stand an old-fashioned log cabin with a corn skin hanging alongside the door. Inside this cabin the real Kentucky article will be dispensed. At the door will be stationed a six-footer to represent the Keokukian of the Daniel Boone period. He will be clad in buckskin and will be armed with an old-time flintlock smooth-bore rifle.

The headquarters will be attractively decorated and illuminated, and refreshments will be served day and night by a committee. There will be a special ladies' committee to look after the women callers. The use of the reception rooms of the club house has been secured for large receptions at night.

Thus in every way the reputation of Kentucky will be maintained at Baltimore. Col. R. S. Brown, who was at Baltimore recently making arrangements, says that the people of the Maryland city are ready to welcome the Kentuckians with open arms.

The Kentucky Elks will go to Baltimore in a magnificent special train over the B. and O. S. W. Every detail for the trip has been arranged by Col. R. S. Brown, the hustling district passenger agent of the road. The special will leave Louisville Sunday, July 19, at 1:30 p. m., arriving in Baltimore the next day at noon. The special will travel over a historic country.

The special will be used by all the Elks' lodges of the state, who expect to send the biggest delegations that ever represented them at any reunion. In fact, the train will be a Kentucky special, open not only to members of the order, but to all others who want to take advantage of the low rates offered.

"THEY SAY."

Two simple words, which we hear almost every hour in the day. Rich and poor, high and low continuously use them.

Have you ever stopped to think how many times tears have flown; how many hours and days, aye, months and years, have been lived through in bitter anguish; how many hearts have been broken—all because of the simple phrase, "They say!"

How freely it often sounds! And yet how much venom is not infrequently hidden in it!

The most preposterous statements are sometimes introduced with "They say." And there are always people ready to believe the almost unbelievable, and who iterate and reiterate it until it becomes an accepted fact.

"They say" is like the mirage that appears to the thirsty traveler in the desert; the more he strains to reach it the more rapidly it fades away into mere nothingness.

When the victim of slander tries to trace it to its source nobody knows anything about it except—"They say."

It was repeated merely as a stray bit of news; no evil was intended; it was only a joke; nothing had been made up, and it was simply a repetition of what others had stated.

But it grew like the rings from a stone cast into the water; like an avalanche hurtling down the mountain side it gained in speed and force; it struck home.

And another reputation was blasted, another heart was broken!—Ex.

A BADLY WANTED MAN CAUGHT

Chicago, June 23—"Prof." A. A. Arthur, a septuagenarian who has been sought by the police of a dozen cities for nearly a score of years, has been caught at Menmouth, Ill., by Chicago detectives. Arthur has operated under many different names, and when he was arrested papers were found in his possession indicating that he was traveling as the vice president of a bank, a professor in an eastern college, a tourist, a lecturer and a minister.

In his satchel was found a full banking outfit, including 500 imitation drafts on the National Park bank of New York.

Arthur's latest alleged swindle by which he is believed to have obtained $200,000 is thus described by the police:

"He would deliver a lecture and when about to leave would produce a New York draft, sometimes for $25 and sometimes $200 or more. They appeared regular in every way and there seldom was difficulty in cashing it.

Arthur is wanted in Kansas, Nebraska, Indiana and Illinois.

All Agree.

OFFSET STREET.

WHAT COMMITTEE WILL RECOMMEND IN HUSBANDS STREET MATTER.

The joint street committee of the general council held a meeting yesterday afternoon at the city hall and took up the matter of opening the hands street from Third to Sixth. There are two lots in the way between Third and Fourth streets, and one owner, Mr. Marion Berry, wants $3,000 and another, Dr. Lillard Sanders, wants $1,200, both of which prices are considered exorbitant.

The committee decided to recommend an offset street, or a street that will go to the property and then jump around to the property the city owns, making a crook in the street.

The matter of granting the addition to Oak Grove cemetery was discussed, but not acted on.

TAKES PLACE FRIDAY.

ELKS GIVE THEIR DEFERRED EXCURSION ON CITY OF ST. LOUIS.

The big City of St. Louis, which passed up Saturday evening, will return Friday and run the Elks' excursion deferred from last week. The handsome big steamer is having enormous crowds everywhere and will doubtless have here Friday afternoon and night. She is licensed to carry 7,000 people.

PAID UP APPEAL FOR PENSION

A Marylander has applied for a pension with this graphic account of the way in which his physical disabilities were acquired:

"The way I got my war injury was a ketchin' of a hog. The hog was a sow hog and my captain wanted her for forego. We was chasin' the sow, and she crawled threw a hole in a rail fence. It was a big hog, and I shot at her about the size of the hog, and tried to crawl threw, but I stuck and tried to wiggle out I throd the rails off and one hit me on my head and knocked me senseless. I do not think the sow pig had nothing to do with my line of duty, for I did not ketch the hog. Wich she never war cant."

TAX ON BABIES.

Extreme hot weather is a great tax upon the digestive power of babies, when puny and feeble they should be given a few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge, the children's tonic. It will stimulate and facilitate the digestion of their food, so that they soon become strong, healthy and active. 25c at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

NEITHER GETS THEM

Prof. Will's Children to Remain in Orphans' Home.

Parents Are to Share Expense During Their Five Years' Stay.

In Judge Fisher's court in St. Louis Saturday a decision was rendered of interest in Paducah.

As previously mentioned, Prof. Henry M. Wills, formerly of Milan, Tenn., has sued Mrs. Zela Rhinehart, his former wife, also of Milan, but now a stenographer of Paducah, for the recovery of his two children, who were in the orphans' home in St. Louis.

Judge Fisher would not give the children to either party. He remanded them to the orphans' home with directions that they are to remain there five years, or until further orders of the court. The father and mother are each to pay half of the expense of keeping the children there and each is to have the privilege of seeing them. If either fails to meet the obligation imposed the privilege of seeing the children will be withdrawn.

MUST SERVE

HARDEE BEASLEY, OF FULTON, TO GO TO THE PEN.

In the supreme court of West Tennessee, the following opinion has been rendered:

The case of Hardee Beasley of Fulton, appealed from Lake county was affirmed. Beasley was tried at Tippecanoe for killing Dick Darnell, a druggist, and sentenced to five years in the penitentiary. He will now have to serve his sentence at Nashville.

Mr. Harry Berry has gone to Dawson for his health.

Theatrical Notes.

The initial performance of the Seward Show at the Wallace park Casino was a success in every particular last night but only a fair size and success was out to witness it.

The company is strong and the specialties and illustrated songs are far above the average.

"Fooled by Fortune" was the bill last night and the principals did excellent work. Harrie M. Hooper as Judge Pettibone created much amusement and Mr. Will Santhle in a specialty made the house roar. This is perhaps one of the best specialties ever seen here and Mr. Santhle established quite a reputation. Fooled by Fortune will be presented again tonight and doubtless a large crowd will be out.

Mr. John Havens, Miss Marie Oakland and several chorons boys and girls left this morning for Nashville to appear in summer stock. They intended going into light opera in Indiana, but decided to go south. Mr. Havens will be in the cast, but not manager.

Miss Lillie Hubbard, of Hickman, Md in the city today at noon to Miss Bessie Hall.

Miss Helen Caldwell, of Fulton, is in the city tomorrow to visit Bessie Hall.

FREE FACE BLEACH FOR COMPLEXION

I WILL SEND FREE TRIAL BOTTLE OF MY FACE BLEACH TO ANY LADY SENDING NAME AND ADDRESS.

MME. A. RUPPERT, 6 E 14TH ST., New York City

How to Obtain a Lovely COMPLEXION Clear and Beautiful

It is every woman's duty to be as youthful and good looking as possible, and there is nothing which adds more beauty than a lovely complexion, and there is no remedy which will restore the complexion and give one that youthful appearance like Mme. A. Rupert's World Renowned Face Bleach. This grand remedy clears the skin of every discoloration, and impurity, including pimples, freckles, moth patches, brown spots, liver marks, comedones, flesh-worms, blackheads, oiliness, sallowness, muddiness and skin diseases. It accomplishes these wonderful effects by drawing the impurities and discolorations to the surface of the skin and then removing these blemishes by gradually scaling off a slight surface of the outer scarf skin. It does this in so natural a manner as to be entirely harmless to the most delicate complexion, and, having this action, it cannot fail to produce excellent effects.

Most marvelous results are obtained when Face Bleach is used according to my new Special Directions in conjunction with my Egyptian Balm, which nourishes and feeds the tissues and glands of the skin, and adds the finishing touch which refines, purifies and preserves the skin in its pristine splendor, giving it the glow of youth.

Now, in order that every lady reader of this paper may obtain the highest possible effect from the use of my preparations, I will make the following stupendous offer to all callers at the below address. A bottle of my Face Bleach, a trial jar of my Egyptian Balm, a bar of my most exquisite Almond Oil Complexion Soap, my New Special Directions, my book, "How to be Beautiful," will for $2. The price of Face Bleach alone is $2 per bottle, hence you receive articles absolutely free.

Physicians Recommend Castoria.

CASTORIA has met with pronounced favor on the part of physicians, pharmaceutical societies and medical authorities. It is used by physicians with results most gratifying. The extended use of Castoria is unquestionably the result of three facts: First—The indisputable evidence that it is harmless: Second—That it not only allays stomach pains and quiets the nerves, but assimilates the food: Third—It is an agreeable and perfect substitute for Castor Oil. It is absolutely safe. It does not contain any Opium, Morphine, or other narcotic and does not stupefy. It is unlike Soothing Syrups, Bateman's Drops, Godfrey's Cordial, etc. This is a good deal for a Medical Journal to say. Our duty, however, is to expose danger and record the means of advancing health. The day for poisoning innocent children through greed or ignorance ought to end. To our knowledge, Castoria is a remedy which produces composure and health, by regulating the system—not by stupefying it—and our readers are entitled to the information.—Hall's Journal of Health.

THE WEATHER.

Fair weather tonight. Wednesday partly cloudy and warmer.

The merchants of Paducah have limited themselves to legitimate advertising, and for their own good and protection should not allow themselves to be drawn into any fake advertising scheme. What they want is to advertise in the newspapers that have the circulation and reach the public.

Senator Hanna states positively that he does not aspire to the vice presidency of the United States, and in his usual firm, determined way declares that he would not have it if it were offered him. Senator Hanna has done a great deal for the Republican party and he expects no reward.

The United States, excelling in everything else, is soon to have the largest bank in the world. It will excel the Bank of England, and every other famed financial institution of the old world. Its capital stock will be $100,000,000, but the names of the men who will be connected with the new institution are not made public as yet.

The local Democratic campaign is beginning to warm up, and it seems that Meyer Yeiser will be forced by the Potter contingent to take a stand on one side of the fence or the other in regard to saloons, and other things complicated of. When he has done this and the people see where he stands, it is probable other candidates will announce.

The joint street committee has decided to build an "offset," or crooked street, in opening Husbands street from Third to Fourth. It is not likely that the people will indorse such a proceed-ure. Paducah has long been noted for her straight, level streets, and there is absolutely no excuse for building crooked streets, which will in years to come be eye sores and a source of unending regret. As many streets as possible should be opened, but when the city cannot do it right, it should not do it at all. The property needed for opening Husbands street could be purchased at a fair valuation by condemnation proceedings, which would enable the street to be opened in a straight line. If the city officials allow property owners to block them into building around their property and making crooked streets, the city will never be able to get property desired for such purposes at a fair valuation except by condemnation proceedings.
The council should condemn the Husbands street property if the owners will not sell at a reasonable figure and open the street in the proper way, or not open it at all at the present time.

TRIED TO BLOW SAFE.

Noblesville, Ind., June 23—George Marvin, said to be from Chicago, is in the county jail here in a dying condition as a result of an alleged attempt to blow the safe in a general store at Jolietville. Citizens of the village, who were awakened by a terrific explosion, found Marvin lying unconscious near the store, with one arm blown away and his body otherwise so terribly mangled that he cannot live. When the citizens approached a second man ran away, making his escape. The accidental dropping of a can of nitroglycerine was the cause of the explosion.

Attorney J. V. Eaton went to Scottsville, Ky., today on a visit.

IN POLICE CIRCLES

Two Bad Men Brought in From Tennessee.

Paducah Negro Dies in Penitentiary—
Proceedings of Police Court.

Marshal James Crow returned last night from Decaturville, Tenn., with John Scott, colored, arrested there for maliciously cutting Lark Knight, fireman on the Bettie Owen, a few weeks ago. The negro was almost fatally injured, but is now recovering. Scott formerly lived in Tennessee. His case was today called in police court and deferred until the 25th.

Officer Joe Woods returned last night from Waverly, Tenn., where he took charge of Merion Lucas, a negro charged with stealing a pair of opera glasses from Mr. John W. Keller and selling them as his own. Lucas was arraigned today in police court and his case continued until the 29th.
Both men returned without a regulation.

The police today received information that Clarence Green, colored who was sent last fall to the penitentiary for mayhem, died in the prison
there from a complication of disease.

Today's police court proceedings
Acting Judge D. A. Cross presiding were as follows:

Jennie Hester and Sam Phillip, colored, for stealing a watch from Matin Haybeck, continued until the 24th.

Annie and Willie Cannon, colored,
for a breach of the peace, continued until Thursday.

Fairfax Craig, for failing to support child, continued until Wednesday.

S. A. Womble and Charles Scholz,
J. W. Sherrell, George Detzel, S. B.
Gott and W. C. Gray were fined $10 and costs each for violation of the Sabbath, and a similar charge against James McNulty was continued until the 24th.

Mr. Sam Starks' bicycle has been stolen and the police are unable to find it. Mr. Starks will pay a reward for its return.

Clarence Scott, a small boy of Me-chanicsburg, was arrested for fighting, but was this morning dismissed by Acting Judge Cross with a reprimand.

It Shows Where the Home Team Will Play During the Season.

The new schedule for the K. I. T. league arrived today, but it is not remonstrances. In Paducah there will be no Fourth of July game, according made to change it.

Paducah is scheduled to play at Jackson, Tenn. on July 3 and a double-header on the 4th, while Jack-

Woman In Business

As Illustrated by the Pathetic Story of Toby

From "Letters From a Self-Made Merchant to His Son," by George Horace Lorimer. By permission of Small, Maynard & Co., Publishers, Boston

I never do business with a woman that I don't think of a little incident which happened when I was first married to your ma. We set up housekeeping in one of those cottages that you read about in the story books, but that you want to shy away from when it's put up to you to live in one of them.
It was just the place to go for a picnic,
but it's been my experience that a fellow does most of his picnicking before he's married.

Your ma did the cooking and I hustled for things to cook, though I would take a shy at it myself once in a while and get up my muscle tossing flapjacks.
It was pretty rough sailing, you bet,
but one way and another we managed to get a good deal of satisfaction out of it, because we had made up our minds to take our fun as we went along.

Charles Ester, left field.

"THEY SAY."

Two simple words, which we hear almost every hour in the day. Right and poor, high and low continually use them.

Have you ever stepped to think how many times these words have been said?
Never saw such a sociable pig.
Wanted to sit on the porch with us.
Tried to come into the house evenings.
Used to run down the road squealing for joy when he saw me coming home from work.

Well, it got on toward November, and Toby had been making the most of his opportunities. I never saw a pig that turned out into fat so fast, and the fatter he got the better his disposition grew. I reckon I was attached to him myself in a sort of a sneaking way, but I was mighty fond of hog meat, too, and we needed Toby in the kitchen. So I sent around and had him butchered.

When I got home to dinner next day,
I noticed that your ma looked mighty solemn as she ate the roast of pork down in front of me, but I stayed off, thinking of something else as I carved,
and my wife wore off woolgathering
soon enough when I said:

"Will you have a piece of Toby, my dear?"

Well, sir, she just looked at me for a moment, and then she burst out crying and ran away from the table. But when I went after her and asked her what was the matter she stopped crying and was mad in a minute all the way through. Called me a heartless, cruel cannibal. That seemed to relieve her so that she got over her mad and began to cry again. Begged me to take Toby out of pickle and to bury him in the garden. I reasoned with her, and in the end I made her see that any obsequies for Toby, with pork at 8 cents a pound, would be a pretty expensive funeral for us. But first and last she had managed to take my apper-tise away so that I didn't want any roast pork for dinner or cold pork for supper.

That night I took what was left of Toby to a storekeeper at the Crossing, who I knew would be able to gaze on his hams without bursting into tears,
and got a pretty fair price for him.

I simply mention Toby in passing as an example of why I believe women weren't cut out for business—at least for the pork packing business. I've had dealings with a good many of them,
first and last, and it's been my experience that when they've got a weak case they add their sex to it and win, and that when they've got a strong case they subtract their sex from it and deal with you harder than a man.
They're simply bound to win either way, and I don't like to play a game where I haven't an even show. When a clerk makes a fool break, I don't want to beg his pardon for calling his attention to it, and I don't want him to blush and tremble and leak a little brine into a fancy pocket handkerchief.

A little change is a mighty soothing thing, and I like a woman's ways too much at home to care very much for them in the office. Instead of hiring women I try to hire their husbands, and then I usually have them both working for me. There's nothing like a woman at home to spur on a man at the office.

Several Changes Among the Minor
Officials Reported.

There was a serious wreck on the
I. C. this morning about 7 o'clock at Kuttawa when the first section of train No. 183 struck an extra freight in rear end collision. The 183 struck the extra just at the station on the main line and wrecked a caboose and seven cars. Flagman Senerburg of the extra freight was badly cut by broken glass, his neck, being slit clear across. The engine of the 183 was pretty badly damaged. Conductor Graham was in charge of the 183 and Conductor Scheley in charge of the extra. The cause of the accident is unknown. The main line remained blocked all the morning but the passing track was used and trains were delayed but a short time. The local wrecker, which had just returned from Newbern, was sent up at noon today to clear the track.

Mr. E. R. Pierce, assistant general yardmaster of the local I. C., is off duty temporarily and Mr. Leslie, the present night yardmaster, is acting in his place. Mr. R. V. Williams, yardmaster at S. Barlick's chief clerk, is acting in La Neive's place and Chief Car Checker Clarence Graves is acting in Williams' place. Clem Bloch, assistant car checker, is acting in Graves' place.

Assistant General Manager W. J.
Hamman, of the Illinois Central, was in the city today in a special car with Mr. S. T. Baldwin, of Chicago, chief engineer of construction, who succeeded Mr. David Sloan recently. It is Mr. Baldwin's first visit to Paducah, and while here he and Mr. Harahan were guests at The Palmer.

The Illinois Central wrecker returned from Newbern, Tenn., today at noon after clearing a small blockage or jam at that place. Several cars were jammed together making it impossible to release them and clear the track. The wrecking crew was forced to burn two cars.

R. J. Turnbull, foreman of the I.
C. shops here, has gone to Norfolk,
Va., and is succeeded temporarily by George Duckett, assistant foreman under Turnbull.

Mr. L. L. Dagon, the railroad cen-tractor, is in the city again from Chicago.

WAY OF TRANSGRESSOR.

SERBIAN ASSASSINS ARE BE-COMING DISPLEASED.

Belgrade, June 23—King Peter's promotions of officers of the Geneva military delegation have given serious offense here, and it is probable that they will be canceled.

It is semi-officially stated that Col.
Mitschich, who was gazetted Saturday as commander of the military district of Belgrade, is not the chief con-spirator, but the latter's brother.

The position of the ministry is becoming daily more unenviable in consequence of the Russian and Austrian demands for the punishment of the assassins of King Alexander and Queen Draga. The terms of the Russian note almost caused a panic among the ministers, who are anxiously awaiting the arrival of King Peter to extricate them from their dilemma.

THE Yellowstone Park

Season opened June 1. The Park is increasing in popularity yearly and it is becoming quite the thing for special parties to visit it. Then, too, people stay there longer. Although the regular tourist trip provides for 5 1/2 days in the park, any one can remain longer without any extra charge for transportation. Many cannot afford to spend more time than 5 1/2 days there so the regular schedule is based on that fact.

The hotels are all modern in appointment, electric lighted and steam heated and the trip through this Wonderland is the finest enacting trip to be found in the country.

The government is spending large amounts of money in perfecting the road system. New roads, new steel bridges, improving old roads, is the order of things.

Yellowstone Park is the biggest thing of the kind in the world and "WONDERLAND 1903," which describes it and is published by the Northern Pacific, will be sent to you on receipt of six cents by

CHAS. S. FEE, St. Paul, Minn.

HE HAS TWO WIVES

Groom Arrested on Honeymoon Three Miles From City.

Says He Is Up Against It and Will Return to Oklahoma.

Lawrence Devlin, aged 27, ended a three weeks' honeymoon last night in the county jail on a charge of bigamy. His bride is a pretty girl about 19 years old whom he induced to elope with him at Woodward, Okla., three weeks ago while her father, Mr. Thomas Ogilvie, of Keokuck, was away from home.

After marrying they came on to Kentucky and were visiting on the farm of Mr. Eugene Jacobs, grandfather of the bride, three miles from the city, when the arrest was made last night.

It seems that after Devlin, who is about 27 years old, eloped with the girl her relatives discovered that he has a wife and several children living in Moberly, Mo. The information was forwarded to Mr. Leslie Ogilvie of Fulton, a brother of the bride, who came here and swore out a warrant, and last night Sheriff Potter and Deputy Will Lydon went out and arrested Devlin.

He did not appear to be much surprised when told on what charge he was arrested, admitted that he had been married, but left his wife several years ago, and that relatives had written him his former wife was dead and he believed it. He has lost the letters, however.

The sheriff at Woodward wired Sheriff Potter last night in reply to a query that Devlin was wanted and this morning the prisoner said when arraigned before Judge Lightfoot that he guessed he was up against it, and was willing to go back and stand trial. The authorities there were wired and it has not yet been decided whether Sheriff Potter will take him to Oklahoma or officers will come here after him.

The father of the girl he married formerly lived in McOracken county, Ky., and is a brother of Mr. Elijah Ogilvie of this county. He moved to Hickman county about twelve years ago and from there went to Oklahoma.

GRAUSTARK

...By...
GEORGE BARR MCCUTCHEON

Copyright, 1901, by Herbert S. Stone

"He came, sir," cautioned Dangloss. "I may have my views, but I am not willing to take oath before her royal highness. Listen: You were heard to say you would kill him. You began the fight. You were the aggressor, and there is no one else on earth, it is said, who could have wished to murder him. The man who did the stabbing entered the room through the hall door and left by the same. There are drops of blood in the carpet, leading direct to your door. On your knob are the prints of bloody fingers where you—or some one else—placed his hand in opening the door. It was this discovery, made by me and my men, that fully convinced the enraged friends of the dead prince that you were guilty. When we opened the door, you were gone. Then came the search, the light at the head of the stairs and the race to the prison. The reason I saved you from that mob should be plain to you. I love my princess, and I do not forget that you risked your life, each of you, to protect her. I have done all that I can, gentlemen, to protect you in return. It means death to you if you fall into the hands of his followers just now. A few hours will cool them off no doubt, but now—it would be madness to face them. I know not what they have done to my men at the hotel—perhaps butchered them."

There was anxiety in Dangloss' voice, and there was honesty in his keen old eyes. His charges now saw the situation clearly and apologized warmly for the words they had uttered under the pressure of somewhat extenuating circumstances. They expressed a willingness to remain in the prison until the excitement abated or until some one swore his life against the supposed murderer. They were virtually prisoners, and they knew it well. Furthermore, they could see that Baron Dangloss believed Lorry guilty of the murder. Protestations of innocence had been politely received and politely disregarded.

"Do you expect one of his friends to take the oath?" asked Lorry.

"Yes; it is sure to come."

"But you will not do so yourself?"

"No."

"I thank you, captain, for I see that you believe me guilty."

"I do not say you are guilty, remember, but I will say that if you did murder Prince Lorenz you have made the people of Graustark rejoice from the bottom of their hearts, and you will be eulogized from one end of the land to the other."

"Hanged and eulogized," said Lorry grimly.

CHAPTER XVII.
IN THE TOWER.

THE two captives who were not prisoners were so dazed by the unexpected events of the morning that they did not realize the vast seriousness of the situation for hours. Then it dawned upon them that appearances were really against them and that they were alone in a land far beyond the reach of help from home. One circumstance puzzled them with its damning mystery: How came the blood stains upon the doorknob? Dangloss courteously dismissed this strange and unfortunate feature with them, but with ill concealed skepticism. It was evident that his mind was clear in regard to the whole affair.

Anguish was of the opinion that the real murderer had stolen the knob tentatively, intending to cast suspicion on the man who had been challenged. The assassin had an object in leaving those convulsing finger marks where they would do the most damage. He either desired the arrest and death of the American or hoped that his own guilt might escape attention through the misleading evidence. Lorry held, from his deductions, that the crime had been committed by a fanatic who loved his sovereign too devotedly to see her wedded to Lorenz. Then why should he wantonly cast guilt upon the man who had been her protector, objected Dangloss.

The police guard came in from the hotel about 10 o'clock, bearing marks of an ugly conflict with the Axphalins. They reported that the axphalins had been quelled for the time being, but that a deputation had already started for the castle to lay the matter before the princess. Officers had searched the rooms of the Americans for blood stains, but had found no sign of them.

"Did you find bloody water in which hands had been washed?" asked Anguish.

"No," responded one of the guards. "There was nothing to be found in the bowls and jars except soapy water. There is not a blood stain in the room, captain."

"That shakes your theory a little, eh?" cried Anguish triumphantly. "Examine Mr. Lorry's hands and see if there is blood upon them." Lorry's hands were white and uncontaminated. Dangloss wore a pucker on his brow.

Shortly afterward a crowd of Axphalin men came to the prison gates and demanded the person of Grenfall Lorry, departing after an ugly show of rage. Curious Edelweiss stood afar off, watching the walls and windows eagerly.

"This may cost Edelweiss a great deal of trouble, gentlemen, but there is more happiness here this morning than the city has known in months. Everybody believes you killed him, Mr. Lorry, but they all love you for the deed," said Dangloss, returning at noon from a visit to the hotel and a ride through the streets. "The prince's friends have been at the castle since 10 o'clock, and I am of the opinion that they are having a hard time with the high priestess."

"Had she her?" cried Lorry.

"The town is crazy with excitement. Messengers have been sent to old Prince Bolax to inform him of the murder and to urge him to hasten hither, where he may fully enjoy the vengeance that is to be worked upon his son's slayer. I have not seen a wilder time in Edelweiss since the close of the siege, fifteen years ago. By my soul, you are in a bad box, sir. They are hurrying in every part of town to kill you if you attempt to leave the tower before the princess signs an order to restrain you legally. Your life outside these walls would not be worth a snap of the fingers."

Captain Quinox of the princess' bodyguard, accompanied by a half dozen of his men, rode up to the prison gates about 2 o'clock and was promptly admitted. The young captain was in sore distress.

"The Duke of Mizroth has sworn that you are the murderer, Mr. Lorry, and stakes his life," said he after greetings. "Her highness has just placed in my hands an order for your arrest as the assassin of Prince Lorenz."

Lorry turned as pale as death. "You—you don't mean to say that she has signed a warrant—that she believes me guilty?" he cried, agonized.

"She has signed the warrant, but very much against her inclination. Count Halfont informed me that she pleaded not guilty with the duke for hours, seeking to avert the act which is bound to give pain to all of us. He was obdurate and threatened to carry complaint to Bolax, who would instantly demand satisfaction. As the duke is willing to die if you are proved innocent, there was no other course left for her than to dictate and sign this royal decree. Captain Dangloss, I am instructed to give you these papers. One is the warrant for Mr. Lorry's arrest, the other orders you to assume charge of him and to place him in confinement until the day of trial."

While Quinox was making this statement the accused stood with bowed head and throbbing heart. He did not see the captain's hand tremble as he passed the documents to Dangloss, nor did he hear the unhappy sigh that came from the latter's lips. Anguish, fiery and impulsive, was not to be subdued.

"Is there no warrant for my arrest?" he demanded.

"There is not. You are at liberty to go, sir," responded Quinox.

"I'd like to know why there isn't! I am just as guilty as Lorry."

"The duke charges the crime to but one of you. Baron Dangloss, will you read the warrant?"

The old chief read the decree of the princess slowly and impressively. It was as follows:

Jacot, duke of Mizroth, before his God and on his life, swears that Grenfall Lorry did foully, maliciously and designedly slay Lorenz, prince of Axphal, on the 23rd day of October, in the year of our Lord 1888, and in the city of Edelweiss, Graustark. It is therefore my decree that Grenfall Lorry be declared murderer of Lorenz, prince of Axphal, until he be proved innocent, in which instance his accuser, Jacot, duke of Mizroth, shall forfeit his life according to the law of this land providing penalty for false witness, and by which he himself has sworn to abide faithfully.

Signed,
YETIVE.

There was silence for some moments, broken by the dreary tones of the accused.

"What chance have I to prove my innocence?" he asked hopelessly.

"The same opportunity that he has to prove your guilt. The duke must, according to our law, prove you guilty beyond all doubt," spoke the young captain.

"When am I to be tried?"

"Here is my order from the princess," said Dangloss, glancing over the other paper. "It says that I am to confine you securely and to produce you before the tribunal on the 26th day of October."

"A week! That is a long time," said Lorry. "May I have permission to see the signature affixed to those papers?" Dangloss handed them to him. He glanced at the name he loved, written by the hand he had kissed, now signaling away his life, perhaps. A mist came over his eyes, and a strange joy filled his soul. The hand that signed the name had trembled in doing so—had trembled pitifully. The heart had not guided the fingers. "I am your prisoner, Captain Dangloss. Do with me as you will," he said simply.

"I regret that I am obliged to place you in a cell, sir, and under guard. Believe me, I am sorry this happened. I am your friend," said the old man gloomily.

"And I?" cried Quinox.

"But what is to become of me?" cried poor Anguish, half in tears. "I won't leave you, Gren. It's an infernal outrage!"

"Be cool, Harry, and it will come out right. He has no proof, you know," said the other, wringing his friend's hand.

"But I'll have to stay here too. If I go outside these walls, I'll be killed like a dog," protested Harry.

"You are to have a guard of six men while you are in Edelweiss, Mr. Anguish. Those are the instructions of the princess. I do not believe the scoundrels—I mean the Axphalin nobles—will molest you if you do not cross them. When you are ready to go to your hotel, I will accompany you."

Half an hour later Lorry was in a cell from which there could be no escape, while Anguish was riding toward the hotel, surrounded by Graustark soldiers. He had sworn to his friend that he would unearth the murderer if it lay within the power of man. Captain Dangloss heard the oath and smiled sadly.

At the castle there were depression and relief, grief and joy. The royal family, the nobility, even the servants, soldiers and attendants, rejoiced in the stroke that had saved the princess from a fate worse than death. There were, of course, serious complications for the future, involving ugly conditions that were bound to force themselves upon the land. The dead man's father would demand the life of his murderer. If not Lorry, who?

In the privacy of her room the stricken princess collapsed from the effects

She sank back with a moan, fainting of the ordeal. Her poor brain had striven in vain to invent means by which she might save the man she loved. She had surrendered to the inevitable because there was justice in the claims of the inexorable duke and his vindictive friends. She signed the decree as if in a dream, a nightmare, with trembling hand and broken heart. His death warrant! And yet, like all others, she believed him guilty—guilty for her sake!

Mizroth and his friends departed in triumph, revenge written on every face. She walked blindly, numbly, to her room, assisted by her uncle, the count. Without observing her aunt or the Countess Dagmar, she staggered to the window and looked below. The Axphalins were crossing the parade ground jubilantly. Then came the clatter of a horse's hoof, and Captain Quinox, with the fatal papers in his possession, galloped down the avenue. She clutched the curtains distractedly and, leaning far forward, cried from the open window:

"Quinox! Quinox! Come back! I forbid—I forbid! Destroy those papers, Quinox!"

But Quinox heard not the pitiful wail. Seeing him disappear down the avenue, she threw her hands to her head and sank back within moan, fainting. Count Halfont caught her in his arms. It was nightfall before she was fully revived. The faithful young countess clung to her cossetingly, lovingly, uttering words of consolation until long after the shades of night had dropped. They were alone in the princess' boudoir, seated together upon the divan, the tired head of the one resting wearily against the shoulder of the other. Wide and dark and troubled were the eyes of the ruler of Graustark.

An attendant appeared and announced the arrival of one of the American gentlemen, who insisted on seeing her royal highness. The card on the tray bore the name of Harry Anguish. At once the princess was ruffled with eagerness and excitement.

"Anguish! Show him to this room quickly! Oh, Dagmar, he brings word from him! He comes from him! Why is he so slow? Ah, I cannot wait!"

But from being slow, Anguish was exceedingly swift in approaching the room to which he feared admittance might be denied.

"Tell me! What is it?" she cried as he stopped in the center of the room and glared at her.

"I don't care whether you like it, and it doesn't matter if you are a princess. I'm going to say to you. First, I want to know what kind of a woman you are to throw into prison a man like—like—oh, it drives me crazy to think of it! I don't care if you are insulted. He's a friend of mine, and he is no more guilty than you are, and I want to know what you mean by ordering his arrest."

Her lips parted as if to speak, her face grew deathly pale, her fingers clutched the edge of the divan. She stared at him piteously, unable to move, to speak. Then the blue eyes filled with tears, a sob came to her lips, and her tortured heart made a last brave effort at defense.

"I—I—Mr. Anguish, you wrong me—I—I—Shh tried to whisper through the closed throat and stiffened lips. Words failed her, but she pleaded with those wet, imploring eyes. His heart melted, his anger was swept away in a twinkling. He saw that he had wounded her most deeply.

Cairo, June 23—Cairo won the third straight from Hoptown yesterday afternoon by a score of 4 to 3.

HENDERSON BEATS VINCENNES

Henderson, June 23—Henderson won from Vincennes yesterday on maddy grounds, score 13 to 5.

CAIRO AT LAST!

From time immemorial Paducah and Cairo have been deadly baseball rivals, and today for the first time in several years we welcome our ancient enemy and warn it to prepare to die. We will have nothing but victory. The Egyptians are our meat, and we have been patiently waiting for them ever since the season opened and feel confident that they have been purposely avoiding us because they will be ashamed to go home when we finish the three games with them.

Years ago Cairo and Paducah used to play on the local grounds, and it used to take a posse then to keep down fights. Today the two clubs cross bats again and there will doubtless be a large crowd out, for this is the beginning of a new schedule and the clubs will strive hard for victory. Everything looks forward to a successful season and to large crowds.

The Cairo club arrived last night on the Fowler, and the line-up for today is:

Paducah—Clifford, catcher; Hedges, pitcher; Fitzgerald, first base; Edmunds, second base; Connors, third base; LeCompte, short stop; Murray, left field; Potts, center field; Gage, right field.

Cairo—Rutledge, catcher; Brockett, pitcher; Hughes, first base; Smith, second base; Witt, third base; Croley, short stop; Wallace, left field; Powers, center field; Schwab, right field.

PADUCAH WON HANDS DOWN.

Yesterday's game with New Decatur was not of the snappy sort. The visitors played a slow game, but Paducah did some fast playing, and had as a new member Connor, the new third baseman from Notre Dame, who plays quite a sensational game and it is thought will make good.

Wilson, and Perry, and Burnham and Sallard were the batteries, and Paducah got 10 runs, 10 hits and 2 errors, while the visitors got 3 runs, 8 hits and 5 errors.

PADUCAH CLUB WON.

The Eureka colored ball club of Paducah beat the Jackson, Tenn., colored club yesterday by a score of 2 to 1. It was a hot game and a fight or two occurred, but no one was seriously hurt.

Bob Laagford, known as "Dynamite," will umpire this afternoon's game.

Dunn and Bryant, at Fifth and Norton streets, will give $5 to the Paducah man knocking a fair ball over the fence.

Official umpires will not go in today as President Thompson is not here and has not completed arrangements for them. This is a disappointment to local fans.

Thursday is ladies' day at the ball park and all ladies will be admitted free of charge. President Weille thinks the crowd will be larger on that day than ever before in the history of the present league.

Catcher Gage did not arrive today, having missed connections but will get here tonight. He was badly needed today but the lineup will be strong, the same being in effect as the one yesterday with the exception that Freeman will do the work at the slab.

The Cairo boys arrived last night on the Fowler and are a trim, energetic looking set of fellows. They have been playing faster ball perhaps than any other team in the league, but when Hoptownville hunkles them down so well Paducah fans feel confident that they are "not so huapy."

Connors has made himself solid here and plays as fast ball as little "Willie" LeCompte. He made only one error yesterday and his work at third in putting men out on close throws was superb. He is an easy ball player. The fans have already placed much confidence in him and all falls to the left of the batter will be well taken care of. Connors playing not only at third and short stop, but in right, center and left field and sometimes behind the bat.

This morning the New Decatur team left for home on the N. C. and St. L. train after having met with four sore defeats. They are pretty fast ball players, but did not seem to be very much in the game here. Potts and Sawyer, second baseman and pitcher, remained over and will probably be used in the games against Cairo if Paducah's new men do not all arrive. Potts and Sawyer will not be permanently signed, but will return home after these games here.

POSTOFFICE CASES

Latest Developments Indicate That Others are Involved.

Effort Being Made to Mix Congressmen Load Up in the Affair.

Washington, June 23—The Post says that among the matters which Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow is investigating is the purchase from a California company, the Postal Device and Improvement Co., of some 17,000 devices for indicating the hours of collection of mail. The invention is that of the postmaster at San Francisco, it is said.

It is also said that 7,000 of these devices originally were ordered at a cost of $4 or more each, or a profit of 100 per cent on cost, and the allegation is made that a further order for 10,000 was placed, notwithstanding the original 7,000 devices were not used, but were reposing in a storehouse. The company controlling the device was largely made up of California postal employees, and the Post will say that it is informed that former Representative Louie of California, formerly chairman of the house postoffice committee, took an active part in their behalf and wrote several letters urging the device in the department, and in one of them said it would be an accommodation to him if the matter were attended to.

The allegation was made, the Post will say, that $42,000 of the deficiency of $105,000 in the free delivery service with which Mr. Machen is charged was due to purchases of the device in question, but at the postoffice department this was denied, and the statement made that the matter was under investigation.

Dr. H. P. Sights and wife went to Dawson today at noon on a visit. Dr. Sights goes up on professional business and will return within a few days, his wife remaining several weeks.

Correct Summer Clothing

The Kind That Won't Lose Shape

Did you ever notice how quick thin clothing loses its shape? It's because it is not made right. We overcome that fault in our Correct Summer Clothing—we've had it made a new way. The coats have a full shoulder, with hair-cloth stiffening down the front, that keeps them from breaking or losing shape. The pants have cuff bottoms, concealed buttons and felt straps, the cloth is thoroughly shrunk which overcomes bagging at the knee. There's no clothing like it for fit and style in Paducah. We show the new Irish Donegal Cloths, Cheviots and Home-spuns in coats and pants for men and young men.
